Director's Corner

Our chapel lesson for the week is Adam and Eve choosing to disobey God in Genesis 3. God's Word highlights the importance of discipline by including it as one of the first stories in the Bible. Obedience is important and consequences are necessary. We see God (the perfect parent) disciplining Adam and Eve and we can model our discipline strategy off of this. God sought them out (v 9), helped them identify the problem (v 11), then applied consequences (v 14-19), but also restored them (v. 20-21). Restoration is the fun and most important part! We all will mess up, but that doesn't change how much God loves us and our children need to hear this message applied to them too!
